ST LAWRENCE JEWRY NEXT GUILDHALL

RECITAL SERIES

TUESDAYS at 1.00pm

AUTUMN TERM PROGRAMME

9th September to 25th November 2025

Recitals at St Lawrence Jewry

Music recitals have been a regular feature at St. Lawrence Jewry since they were introduced by Margaret Cobb (the church organist at the time) in 1957.

The programme today is formed to create an invaluable platform for both professionals and conservatoire students to perform in a prestigious central London location.

Traditionally these were limited to just organ and piano but are now varied, with different soloists, ensembles, and repertoire being showcased on a week by week basis.

Recitals are held on Tuesdays at 1.00pm during term time, for up to 45minutes. The timing and relaxed environment for the audience perfectly fits into the lunch break of many city workers and visitors, and you are welcome to come and go as you please.

Entry is free (unless otherwise advertised) with a retiring collection to support the music ministry of St Lawrence Jewry, the upkeep of our instruments, and the administration of the series.

Tea and coffee are available at the back of the church, priced at £2.00 per cup.

Please consider Gift Aid on your donation.

If you are a UK taxpayer and agree to St Lawrence Jewry claiming Gift Aid on your donation (by filling in an envelope for cash donations, or the relevant screen for card donations), the Government will give us 25p on top of every £1 you give to us - and it doesn't cost you a penny!

Thank you for your support!
