Recitals At St Lawrence Jewry

Music recitals have been a regular feature at St Lawrence Jewry since they were introduced by Margaret Cobb (the church organist at the time) in 1957.

The programme is formed to create an invaluable platform for both professionals and conservatoire students to perform in a prestigious central London location.

Traditionally these were limited to just organ and piano, but are now varied, with different soloists, ensembles, and repertoire being showcased on a week by week basis.

Recitals are held on Tuesdays at 1.00pm during term time, for up to 40 minutes. The timing, and relaxed environment for the audience, perfectly fits into the lunch break of many city workers and visitors.

Entry is free (unless otherwise advertised) with a retiring collection to support the music ministry of St Lawrence Jewry, the upkeep of our instruments, and the administration of the series.

Spring Term Programme

| | | |
|---------------|---|--|
| January 21st | Isabelle Allan | Violin |
| January 28th | Greg Hartmann | Piano |
| February 4th | Elisabeth Tsai | Piano |
| February 11th | Eryna Kisumba & Alicia Hernandez | Cello & Piano |

A retiring collection is taken at the end of each recital, and we are grateful of any donation you may wish to make.

The collection from recitals is allocated to supporting the St Lawrence Jewry Music Fund, which contributes to the running of the recitals and the upkeep and maintenance of the organ and piano.

If you would prefer to make your donation using card / contactless, you can use the Giving Station in the church entrance, or scan the QR code here:

Please consider Gift Aid on your donation. If you are a UK taxpayer and agree to St Lawrence Jewry claiming Gift Aid on your donation (by filling in an envelope for cash donations, or the relevant screen for card donations), the Government will give us 25p on top of every £1 you give to us - and it doesn't cost you a penny!

If you are a musician interested in being part of our programme, please do get in touch.
